Alcazaba Lagoon is one of the most amazing resorts on the Costa del sol. As an owner of this beautiful apartment in phase one you will have access to the private owners beach and the lagoon. You can enjoy sports, swimming, having a meal or drink in the restaurant or beachbar or maybe be working out in the high tech gym. If this is not enough you can use the swimming pools of the urbanisation.

This two bedroom apartment is in immaculate condition and enjoys views to the gardens and a glimpse of the sea. The orientation and location within the urbanisation of this corner unit makes it ideal for those looking for privacy. The development also offers a playground and has got security. There is a good size storage and an underground parking space included in the price.

A must see property
