Fantastic inland opportunity!

This amazing semi-detached villa is surrounded by the stunning Andalusian countryside and offers unique characteristics.

The main house includes a fantastic lounge and dining area, boasting vaulted ceilings, a traditional décor, exposed brick features, and a huge open fireplace in the lounge. The kitchen is completely equipped, beautifully designed and also enjoys a wood-burner. There are multiple studies or reading rooms that add to the cozy, traditional feel of this gorgeous property.

There are six bedrooms, two double bedrooms located on the ground floor and the other four located upstairs. One of these is also double and includes a fitted wardrobe while the other three are smaller and can fit a single bed. All three bathrooms are fully functional and complete.

There are 5 warehouse additions to the property, all extensive in size and in fantastic condition. They are employed for a variety of purposes including storage space, a second kitchen, a music room, a tool shed and as a covered garage.

Surrounding the property is a large outdoor area. There are sizable terraces that enjoy the sunshine all day long and boast unbeatable views of the surrounding scenery and olive groves.

Lastly, the location of this fantastic property allows for privacy, seclusion and tranquility while only being a 10 minute drive from amenities such as restaurants and shops, as well as under an hour drive to the coast and Málaga city.

This property truly is an ideal opportunity as a full-time or holiday home in the heart of the Andalusian countryside.
