In the heart of Alhaurin el Grande, nestled in a charming Spanish street, sits a corner townhouse ripe for renovation. Behind the Gerald Brennan Street, this property boasts a spacious roof terrace with breathtaking views of the mountains and forest, along with a lively street scene below. Upon entering, you'll find an open living and kitchen area, two versatile rooms currently used as a dining room and bedroom, and access to a patio with a small bathroom. The staircase in the living room leads to the second floor, where you'll discover a commodious living room, three bedrooms, a storage space, and a bathroom. From the hallway, a staircase ascends to a renovated roof terrace, offering immense potential to create an idyllic outdoor haven. This property presents an exceptional investment opportunity, with the potential to transform it into a dream home. While the bathrooms, kitchens, and windows require some updates, the location is unbeatable - within walking distance of numerous restaurants, shops, and a bus stop. Seize this chance to make this townhouse your own, and enjoy the convenience of a central location and the beauty of the surrounding landscapes.
