Nestled in the heart of the charming village of Alcalá del Valle, less than 30 minutes from Ronda, this three-story townhouse offers a bright and welcoming abode. Renovated to perfection, the residence occupies a privileged location in the Plaza del Ayuntamiento, the most picturesque part of the village. Alcalá del Valle, known for its scenic beauty and cultural richness, provides a tranquil escape from city life, with a delightful atmosphere that captures the essence of Andalusian charm.

The townhouse features two large living rooms, a kitchen with a fireplace, seven spacious bedrooms, two extra-large bathrooms, a 50m² patio, and a 30m² rooftop terrace boasting stunning panoramic views. With its versatile layout, the property is an ideal home for a family seeking space and comfort, a lucrative option for tourist accommodations, or a potential boutique hotel. Alternatively, the townhouse can be effortlessly divided into separate apartments, offering a myriad of possibilities for its fortunate owner.
