. Welcome to your coastal oasis in Torrevieja, where serenity is just 500 meters away from the beach. This charming attached bungalow combines the elegance of rustic style with proximity to the sea, creating a home that reflects warmth and comfort. The stone and wood facade adds a touch of classic charm, harmoniously blending with the coastal surroundings. Upon entering, you will be greeted by a bright living room flowing into the kitchen, highlighting the spaciousness and connection between the spaces. The kitchen, equipped with modern appliances, invites you to create delicious meals that can be enjoyed in the adjacent dining area. The house features three cozy bedrooms, each designed with rustic details that contribute to a relaxing atmosphere. Two full bathrooms provide comfort and privacy for residents and their guests. The attic offers additional space, perfect for a study, game room, or even an additional bedroom. For those seeking moments of tranquility and panoramic views, the solarium serves as a perfect retreat. From here, you can enjoy stunning sunsets and the soothing sound of waves breaking on the nearby beach. The property also boasts a large pantry, providing additional space for storage and efficient home organization. To maintain an ideal temperature throughout the year, ducted air conditioning is present throughout the house. The luxury of living in this bungalow extends beyond its walls, as residents have access to a communal pool. This shared space provides an opportunity to socialize and cool off during warm days. In summary, this home not only offers a coastal retreat with charming rustic design but also provides the opportunity to enjoy seaside living and create unforgettable memories in beautiful Torrevieja.
