El Chaparral is a residential area located in the municipality of Torrevieja, which is situated on the south-eastern coast of Spain in the province of Alicante, within the autonomous community of Valencia. Torrevieja is renowned for its Mediterranean climate, stunning beaches, and vibrant cultural scene, making it a popular destination for both tourists and expatriates.

El Chaparral is known for its peaceful ambiance and its proximity to nature. The area is characterized by low-rise residential buildings, villas, and townhouses nestled amidst lush greenery. It offers a mix of permanent residents and holidaymakers drawn to its tranquil surroundings.

One of the notable features of El Chaparral is its close proximity to the natural park of La Mata, which is famous for its saltwater lagoon, diverse birdlife, and scenic walking trails. Residents of El Chaparral can enjoy easy access to outdoor activities such as hiking, birdwatching, and picnicking in this beautiful natural setting.

The nearby town of Torrevieja provides residents of El Chaparral with a wide range of amenities, including supermarkets, shops, restaurants, bars, and medical facilities. The town also boasts several sandy beaches and a picturesque promenade where locals and visitors alike can enjoy leisurely strolls and breath-taking views of the Mediterranean Sea.

Overall, El Chaparral offers a tranquil and idyllic living environment with convenient access to both natural beauty and urban amenities, making it a desirable location for those seeking a relaxed lifestyle on the Spanish coast.
