San Pedro del Pinatar is one of the main tourist hubs on the Costa Cálida. Located between the Mar Menor and the Mediterranean, this destination is famous for its fishing tradition, healing muds, and salt flats.

In San Pedro, you'll find the largest outdoor mud therapy area in all of Europe. Coming here and not immersing yourself from head to toe in its famous mineral-medicinal muds is a crime. Whether at the saline pond set up for this purpose or in hotels and centers offering specialized treatments, the choice is yours. And if you want to take the paradise home with you, don't forget that you can buy mud at thalassotherapy centers.

The promenade is another itinerary that doesn't require planning, as the spectacular colors of the sunset, panoramic views of the Mar Menor, and the gentle sea breeze will exert an irresistible attraction on you. Along the long promenade, you'll find hotels, bars, restaurants, and shops of all kinds.

In San Pedro del Pinatar, you can enjoy our two seas, the Minor, on beaches like La Mota, La Puntica, and Villananitos; and the Major or Mediterranean, in protected areas such as the beaches of La Llana, which are part of the Salinas and Arenales de San Pedro, Torre Derribada, and El Mojón.

If you enjoy water sports, you won't find a place more full of possibilities. Both the calm and tranquil waters of the Mar Menor and those of the Mediterranean are ideal for sailing, kayaking, catamaran sailing, windsurfing, jet skiing, and diving.
