Here is a superb opportunity to buy a versatile commercial premises to run a business from in a very pleasant location. This property is located at street level with street parking and is right across the road from the Mijas Golf Course. It is handy to Fuengirola, La Cala de Mijas, La Cala Hills and the general Costa del Sol coastline and A7.

The property is registered as 165m², with office space of 155m². The entrance has double doors and an electric security shutter. The main window is made of plate glass. There is a large open plan office, a smaller back office (behind glass), a bathroom complete with shower, water heater and toilet. There is also a kitchenette area to make drinks that could be extended. There is also hot/cold air conditioning throughout the premises.

The potential is there to use this property as offices for general business or due to its dropped ceiling (90cm), there is space in the ceiling to include ducting for an extractor fan to then use the premises as a restaurant/bar.

The business can also be bought with a sitting tenant (estate agency) who is in their third rental term. Rental contracts have been renewed every 5 years.
